

QuikTarget

WORKSHEET 2

To target a passage without taking it out of context, we must show how it fits into its book:

- 🔊 First, show how the book leads up to and prepares the way for the passage
- 🔊 Then, show how the passage leads up to and prepares the way for what comes after it
- 🔊 Use words that express the idea of getting the reader ready for what comes next, like:
 - 🌟 After the writer says..., he goes on to say...
 - 🌟 The writer braces us for (what's next) by first saying...
 - 🌟 The writer tells us..., to build up to (what's next)
 - 🌟 The writer equips us for (what's next) by telling us...
 - 🌟 The writer establishes (what's next) by starting with...
 - 🌟 The writer gears up for (what's next) by explaining...
 - 🌟 The writer gets us ready for (what's next) by informing us...
 - 🌟 The writer launches into (what's next) after he says...
 - 🌟 The writer lays the foundation for (what's next) by saying...
 - 🌟 The writer opens the door for (what's next) with...
 - 🌟 The writer says...to pave the way for (what's next)

QuikTarget

WORKSHEET 2

To target a passage without taking it out of context, we must show how it fits into its book:

- 🔊 First, show how the book leads up to and prepares the way for the passage
- 🔊 Then, show how the passage leads up to and prepares the way for what comes after it
- 🔊 Use words that express the idea of getting the reader ready for what comes next, like:
 - 🌟 After the writer says..., he goes on to say...
 - 🌟 The writer braces us for (what's next) by first saying...
 - 🌟 The writer tells us..., to build up to (what's next)
 - 🌟 The writer equips us for (what's next) by telling us...
 - 🌟 The writer establishes (what's next) by starting with...
 - 🌟 The writer gears up for (what's next) by explaining...
 - 🌟 The writer gets us ready for (what's next) by informing us...
 - 🌟 The writer launches into (what's next) after he says...
 - 🌟 The writer lays the foundation for (what's next) by saying...
 - 🌟 The writer opens the door for (what's next) with...
 - 🌟 The writer says...to pave the way for (what's next)

QuikTarget

WORKSHEET 2

To target a passage without taking it out of context, we must show how it fits into its book:

- 🔊 First, show how the book leads up to and prepares the way for the passage
- 🔊 Then, show how the passage leads up to and prepares the way for what comes after it
- 🔊 Use words that express the idea of getting the reader ready for what comes next, like:
 - 🌟 After the writer says..., he goes on to say...
 - 🌟 The writer braces us for (what's next) by first saying...
 - 🌟 The writer tells us..., to build up to (what's next)
 - 🌟 The writer equips us for (what's next) by telling us...
 - 🌟 The writer establishes (what's next) by starting with...
 - 🌟 The writer gears up for (what's next) by explaining...
 - 🌟 The writer gets us ready for (what's next) by informing us...
 - 🌟 The writer launches into (what's next) after he says...
 - 🌟 The writer lays the foundation for (what's next) by saying...
 - 🌟 The writer opens the door for (what's next) with...
 - 🌟 The writer says...to pave the way for (what's next)

- ☼ The writer prepares us for (what's next) by describing...
- ☼ The writer primes us for (what's next) by advising us...
- ☼ The writer rigs us for (what's next) by beginning with...
- ☼ The writer develops an...to set up (what's next)
- ☼ The writer sets the stage for (what's next), by proposing...

- ☼ The writer prepares us for (what's next) by describing...
- ☼ The writer primes us for (what's next) by advising us...
- ☼ The writer rigs us for (what's next) by beginning with...
- ☼ The writer develops an...to set up (what's next)
- ☼ The writer sets the stage for (what's next), by proposing...

- ☼ The writer prepares us for (what's next) by describing...
- ☼ The writer primes us for (what's next) by advising us...
- ☼ The writer rigs us for (what's next) by beginning with...
- ☼ The writer develops an...to set up (what's next)
- ☼ The writer sets the stage for (what's next), by proposing...